Rights of Personal Data Owners

The regulations govern specific rights for personal data owners; these rights are generally known as "ARCO rights" and include the following:

- Access: the right you have to know what data we have about you, as well as to know how we use or share it.

To exercise any of your rights, you must submit a request addressed to the Personal Data Officer of your locality, through the means established in the international section of this Notice.

[1] Applicable for Ecuador

The use of electronic means for the exercise of ARCO Rights authorizes the Controller to respond to the corresponding request through the same means, unless you indicate another means of contact in your request, clearly and expressly.

The right to cancel is not absolute. Please note that the Controller must retain information to comply with various legal obligations and that to do so, it may share your personal data with other entities or organizations. In such cases, the right to cancel may have to be requested from the Arca Continental Entity responsible for receiving your personal data.
