Monterrey, Mexico, September 30, 2016 – Arca Continental, S.A.B. de C.V. (“Arca Continental” or “the Company”) (BMV: AC) informs that is continuing to work toward a definitive agreement with The Coca-Cola Company for bottling of territory in a large portion of the Southwest United States, including Texas and parts of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arkansas.

Previously, Arca Continental announced a letter of intent with The Coca-Cola Company, along with Coca-Cola Bottling Company UNITED, to create a joint venture involving these territories.

During due diligence and transition planning, the companies concluded that it is in the best interests of all parties involved, for Arca Continental to focus on the Southwest transition, while UNITED will turn its full attention and resources to its previously announced Atlanta market transition. Consequently, Birmingham, Ala.-based UNITED will no longer participate in the Southwest joint venture.

Arca Continental and UNITED also look forward to sharing best practices, given that their expected future territories will border each other.

Arca Continental will continue to work with The Coca-Cola Company toward reaching a definitive agreement in the first half of 2017, as previously announced.
